Objective

- The main thrust of my education has focused around history and international relations. As such I seek admission into the International studies program at North Carolina State university to further those studies while also giving me an opportunity to further my skills in foreign language. looking at the longer term my career goals focus around joining the armed forces and serving in the military in a professional capacity. I am firmly of the opinion that the continued pursuit of my education is vitally important to my ability to effectively carry out my hoped for ambitions and responsibilities in the armed forces.
